

The easiest way to make your event a fun and unforgettable success.

What's the difference between "another banquet" and one that lives long after in the minds of your guests? Often it's not the food or the venue, but the entertainment. That's the job of Amazement Productions, making private and corporate events fun and unforgettable with magical entertainment.

Count on our interactive magic to capture your guests' attention and bring out the laughs and smiles! You'll hear screams of laughter and see looks of amazement as your participants are featured as stars of the performance. Both strolling and stand-up shows are available to best fit the venue and number of guests you expect.

Hassle-free Entertainment

Selecting entertainment is the smallest of your concerns when planning an event. Invite Amazement Productions to take care of the entertainment, and you never need to worry about having the right equipment. Our performers travel with their own tables and sound system (if required) to make your job easy. Backdrops and even portable stage lighting are available for more theatrical productions.

The result? You can relax and enjoy the show yourself!

Call today for booking information and to reserve your choice of dates. You'll feel great when your guests thank you for planning such a successful event!
